

I am strongly against the weakening of the do not call list regulations. I finally am able to have dinner with my family without any interruptions from annoying telemarketers. Please do not change New jersey's do not call list.